

St. Peter's Adult Sunday School Guide

st. peter's
United Methodist Church

All Ages Adult Sunday School

Abide - S201 @ 11:00 am

A bible study oriented class dedicated to Christian growth through daily scripture reading and coming together for discussion on Sunday mornings. We welcome all ages who enjoy conversation and fellowship with others striving to become closer to God.

Chi Rho - S202 @ 9:45 am

Our class is centered on the Scriptures with facilitated group discussion. We are multi-generational and benefit from being exposed to viewpoints of many varied backgrounds and stages of life. We are active in missions and enjoy class socials several times a year.

Divine Diversity - S205

@ 9:45 am

This diverse group comes together at all stages and ages in life. Join us as we walk in God's loving grace, through prayer, study, and service.

All Ages Adult Sunday School

Faith Mates - S101 @ 9:45 am

This is a young adult class for married couples. Please join us to discuss topics from personal faith and the Bible to marriage and parenting.

Generation Acts - S201

@ 9:45 am

We are parents of school-age children at various stages in our walk with Christ. We strive to improve our relationship with God and others through monthly socials, caring support, mission work, and Bible-based lessons covering a variety of topics. Wherever you are, we have a space and a place for you!

All Ages Adult Sunday School

New Beginnings - S209 @ 9:45 am

The class explores their faith through open discussion of contemporary Christian issues interspersed with Bible studies. Teaching responsibility is shared among voluntary class members.

Pathfinders - E225 @ 9:45 am

This Bible-oriented class is dedicated to Christian growth through studying the Scriptures. The class consists of couples and singles of all ages.

Seekers of Christ - Asbury Hall W

@ 9:45 am

This class studies a mixture of topics: Bible study, living our faith, and political/social topics as they relate to Christian life through use of videos, guest speakers, and member-led class discussion.

For more information, contact Elizabeth Bucher at ebucher@stpkaty.org

St. Peter's Adult Sunday School Guide

st. peter's
United Methodist Church

Senior Adult Sunday School

Christian Journeys - S205 @ 11:00 am

Christian Journeys is geared toward the 55+ age group. We will study John Wesley and similar Bible studies throughout the year.

Contemporary Christians - S212

@ 9:45 am

This class for those 50+ discusses a variety of topics including theology, personal growth, contemporary issues, and Bible studies.

Faithful Friends - S210 @ 9:45 am

We are a small class of primarily empty-nesters and proud grandparents. We read books together on varying topics and discuss the chapters weekly. The discussions often are very soul-searching.

Heritage - Asbury Hall E @ 9:45 am

This class continues to promote its interest in the Bible, Methodism, comparative religions, social issues and social events with a team of rotating teachers. Married couples and singles, middle-aged and older, are welcomed and encouraged to belong to this group of caring Christians.

Senior Adult Sunday School

Leftover Friends - E106 @ 9:45 am

This class consists of adults with grown children and studies contemporary subjects, the Bible, and current events.

Revelation - S204 @ 9:45 am

Geared for persons 55 and older, this Bible study class will help deepen participants' spiritual lives.

Singles With a Purpose - S205

@ 11:00 am

Singles With a Purpose is a class of singles, both men and women, who are 50+. Through Bible studies geared for older singles, activities planned throughout the year, and lunches after church, we meet the needs of singles.

Afternoon Men's Sunday School

Fishers of Men - Library @ 3:00 pm

Fishers of Men meets Sunday evenings and offers men of all ages an opportunity to get to know the scriptures better and to make friends.

Adult Sunday School is a great way to grow in your faith. St. Peter's offers a variety of classes at 9:45 and 11:00 a.m. for every age and stage in life. You can find studies on the Bible, Christian topics, family relationships, and contemporary issues. These classes also provide opportunities for fellowship and for service to others. Connect with your St. Peter's family through one of these Sunday School classes.